

An Event Management Career with HORIZONS!

On Thursday, February 21, Kenvale College launched a special careers event for year 12 students at the Country Comfort Wagga Wagga Conference Room. The event called “Horizons” gave students from schools Wagga in the Wagga region a chance to meet with a successful industry professional and exchange their views about the hospitality and event management industry.

The keynote speaker, Penny Lamont, from “Events Wagga Wagga”, gave a powerful speech about her experience in an industry which requires good communication skills and dynamism. Penny said: “Managing events has extended my ability to be flexible, non judgmental and incredibly broad minded”.

Janelle McLaurin, Sous Chef at the Country Comfort, also shared her experience as a Kenvale graduate.

Two representatives of Kenvale College hosted the event which proved to be a very successful experience.

Bernie McFarlane, regional marketing manager explains: “At Kenvale we are looking for those students who are really passionate about entering the hospitality and event management industry. The College with its “Knowledge, Experience, Humanity” motto emphasises the need for a true attitude of service in its prospective students”.

Kenvale College, based in Sydney, is Australia’s first Hospitality College. Established in 1971, Kenvale is the only College which provides simultaneous work and study from day one.

Kenvale’s vision is summed up in its motto “Knowledge, Experience, Humanity”. This vision not only includes training from highly qualified and competent industry professionals, it also places a strong emphasis on the humanity side – seeing hospitality as a field in which people can really make a difference in humanising society.

Amongst those who attended the event Vivien Daniher, Anthea Reardan and Amelia King from The Riverina Anglican College.
