what is the

highflyer program

Now in its 6th year, the High Flyer Program is a joint project of Kenvale College and the Radisson Blu Hotel Sydney.

The program gives selected students:

- The opportunity to help run a gala dinner at the Radisson Blu Hotel Sydney, and
- a chance of winning a scholarship to study Hospitality and Event Management or Commercial Cookery at Kenvale College, with an ongoing work placement at Radisson Blu Hotel Sydney.

How does The High Flyer program work?

1. Apply:

Year 12 students apply to High Flyer by submitting the following:

- 300 words detailing why you should be chosen for this program.
- Your resume – include your personal details and details of referees
- Most recent school report
- Optional - you may choose to add anything else to support your application – eg portfolio, powerpoint presentation, video, etc.

3. Training:

The selected students will participate in three days of training at Radisson Blu Hotel Sydney in preparation for the dinner.

4. Gala Dinner:

Students prepare and host the dinner, and final assessments are carried out. During the dinner the two selected students for the scholarship will be announced.

5. Winners announced:

Two winners will be awarded a scholarship based on their overall performance throughout the program. The winners will be announced at the Gala Dinner. These two students will be offered entry into a Kenvale course, with a partial scholarship, as well as a work placement at Radisson Blu Hotel.

2. Interview:

Applications are reviewed and students are called for group interviews at Kenvale College. The skills assessed include listening & communication skills, leadership & team building and service attitude. The top 20 students are selected to participate in the dinner, either as part of the Hospitality and Events team, or in the kitchen

Radisson Blu Hotel Sydney

The Radisson Blu Hotel Sydney is a 5 star hotel housed within a heritage-listed building located in the heart of the city. The hotel's stunning sandstone facade dates back to the 1800's, and the building was once home to Fairfax newspapers and the Bank of New South Wales. Guests will appreciate this Sydney hotel's convenient location in the CBD (central business district) with many of Australia's top companies and famous Sydney sites on its doorstep.

The hotel features 362 stylish guest rooms, eight meeting rooms, two award winning restaurants, a newly refurbished lobby bar and a health club.

Kenvale College: History & Mission

Established in 1971, Kenvale College was Australia's first private Hospitality College and a founding member of the Australian Association of Hotel Schools. With its unique industry placement structure, experience is integrated into the program in a way that allows students to gain a practical knowledge that is consistently applied to the real world.

Kenvale College is a non-profit College committed to meeting the needs of the Australian Hospitality and Event Industries. Kenvale College graduates have a 100% success rate in finding employment in the industry.

Kenvale's Core Values are: KNOWLEDGE. EXPERIENCE. HUMANITY.

Above all, the thread underlying everything done at Kenvale is humanity. As per the founding philosophy, Kenvale sees hospitality and events as channels for making society more humane. Through taking care of people and treating everyone with the utmost dignity and respect, people in this industry can touch the lives of those they serve.
